POINTS AND AUTHORITIES

An analysis of Plaintiff's Motion reveals that it is predicated upon the erroneous assumption of Plaintiff that at the time of the hearing before this Court on October 3, 2014 on Colquitt's Motion to Quash Service and Dismiss, attorney Kent F. Larsen "entered an appearance for Colquitt and argued the motion for Colquitt." (See Plaintiff's Motion Page 3, Lines 2-3) This is simply not the case and not supported by the pleadings filed in this case or the record before the Court. At all times relevant in this action, Defendant Colquitt has appeared Pro Se and has at no time been represented by Mr. Larson or any other attorney. Defendant's Motion to Quash and Dismiss was obviously a timely response to Plaintiff's Second Amended Complaint, despite Plaintiff's failure to properly comprehend Federal Rules of Civil Procedure 12 and the computation of time following the service of a complaint. Upon the denial of Colquitt's motion, pursuant to Rule 12(4)(a), Defendant clearly has the right to file another responsive pleading within 14 days of receipt of notice of the denial of the motion. Colquitt filed a timely Answer to Plaintiff's Complaint on October 15, 2014. Plaintiff's motion is clearly just another abuse of the judicial system by Plaintiff meant to harass and vex defendants through the filing of meritless and burdensome pleadings.
